Subject: Calendar Change for Southwest Justice Center - Family Law

Effective July 30, 2007, Family Law cases from Southwest Justice Center (SWJC) where both parties are self-represented and previously heard in Department S101 at SWJC, will be moved to Department F2 at the Riverside Family Law Courthouse and heard by Commissioner Pamela Thatcher.

Mediation appointments for these cases will continue to take place at SWJC.

Domestic violence temporary restraining orders and ex-parte matters on these cases will continue to be heard at the Hemet Courthouse.

On that same date, Department S101 at SWJC will begin hearing Misdemeanor Trial Readiness Conferences on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8:00 a.m., Felony and Misdemeanor Motions on Fridays at 8:30 a.m., and be open for Preliminary Hearings on Mondays and Fridays. Judge Timothy Freer will be hearing these matters.

Thank you.
